UNIVERSAL SCREEN MAGAZINE.

Issue No. 28—Released July 20.

On the trail of the duck is the first subject of Issue No. 28 of the Screen Magazine, and shows how hunters go after the bird. Despite the hardships the sport has a fascination all its own. the East River, which enables passengers to journey from Washington to Boston and through New York without change, is seen next. Vigilant naval reservists are guarding the structure night and day. A new invention shown this week is the payroll machine, which is a mechanical chasier paying out millions every year in salaries, with unerring accuracy and speed. The manufacture of coconut macaroons is a fascinating study. The concern pictured turns out ten thousand a day. The reel ends with a clay cartoon by Willie Hopkins.
